

I just sent a comment protesting the proposed changes to the FCC rules on how much media a single entity can own. I believe I referred to this as the vote to be taken on July 2, and would like to correct that to June 2. I heartily protest any changes allowing entities to own more media outlets than that currently allowed by the FCC. Thank you for your time.